SK Hynix Cancels $10 Billion Solidigm IPO Amid Korean Regulator Opposition

SK Hynix scrapped a planned $10 billion U.S. IPO of its Solidigm flash-memory unit after fierce opposition from South Korean regulators and shareholders. Authorities warned the float could dilute minority stakes, create a duplicate listing and deepen the "Korea discount" that undervalues local stocks. Solidigm also pointed to weak market conditions and a 60% plunge in SK Hynix's share price since June, tied to slowing memory-chip demand. Governance groups hail the cancellation as a win for minority rights and tighter corporate oversight in Korea, though the firm says its growth outlook for Solidigm remains unchanged.

Treasuries Surge Amid AI Sell-off, French Unrest and Middle East Tension

Treasuries jumped Thursday, posting their biggest one-day gain in two years as investors fled an AI-stock sell-off, French unrest and Middle-East tension. The 10-year yield fell about 20 bp, slipping below 5% for the first time in a month and undercutting French yields for the first time since 2013. Traders closed shorts, bought Treasury futures and pushed back rate-hike expectations to a 0.25% rise in January rather than December. AI worries sent the Philadelphia Semiconductor Index down 7.3%, while Brent crude rose above $113 after Saudi attacks. A $26 billion five-year TIPS auction sold at 2.367%, the highest since Oct 2023. Strategists say safe-haven demand outweighs inflation concerns, noting high yields and AI risk are steering money into government bonds.

SpaceX negotiating 80,000 cell sites lease, Crown Castle stock jumps

SpaceX is negotiating with at least one major tower owner, likely Crown Castle, to lease at least 80,000 U.S. cell sites for a new nationwide carrier. The talks, confirmed by sources, would complement SpaceX's low-band spectrum win and FCC approval for 15,000 satellites that will deliver mobile service directly to phones. Crown Castle's stock rose ~10% after Bloomberg reported the talks, while AT&T, Verizon and T-Mobile each fell about 5% on competition fears. The deals, potentially worth billions, could let Elon Musk turn Starlink and the new spectrum into a major carrier with satellite and terrestrial coverage.

Yen hits one-month high as US tech sell-off fuels safe-haven rally

The yen surged to a one-month high, touching 156.08 per dollar after a sharp sell-off in US tech stocks pushed investors toward safe-haven assets. It rose 0.4% on Friday, following a 0.9% gain the day before, and also gained 0.3% versus the Swiss franc and euro as concerns over French fiscal policy and energy prices weighed on the euro. Japanese 10-year bond yields fell 10 bps, while US Treasuries held their rally. Strategists say the move reflects both risk-aversion and possible domestic flow support, but some caution it may not signal a sustained yen uptrend ahead of upcoming BOJ and Fed meetings. Sydney Recruiter Automates Firm with AI Agents, Near-Zero Human Involvement

Alicia Keenan, 49, a Sydney recruiter, rebuilt her niche executive-search firm with four autonomous AI agents after hitting a growth ceiling that depended on her alone. In months she wrote ~200 documents to encode 20 years of expertise, defining each agent's workflow, privacy, legal and compliance rules across jurisdictions. The agents now source leads, create market intel, nurture candidates and run searches, with Keenan intervening only at key checkpoints. Early glitches—mis-shortlisted candidates and off-tone emails—still need human review, but the system runs faster and cheaper than staff. Keenan aims to cut her involvement to near-zero in 18 months, noting humans will always make final judgments. Her case shows AI can turn a traditional firm into a "one-person company," delivering productivity gains after intensive redesign…

OpenAI seeks $30 billion, targets $1.25 trillion valuation

OpenAI is in the final stage of a new funding round seeking roughly $30 billion and now targets a $1.25 trillion valuation, down $150 billion from a previously discussed $1.4 trillion figure. The company last raised $122 billion in March at an $852 billion valuation. Coatue Management is slated to co-lead, while investors from the UAE, BlackRock and others are also in talks. OpenAI expects investor commitments finalized by the end of next week. The firm has postponed its IPO to next year to focus on AI safety, as rivals like Anthropic prepare their own offerings. Technology stocks have slipped this week amid concerns over heavy AI spending.
