Disclosure : Business activities Affected by COVID 19 Pandemic

Dear Sir,

We wish to inform you that the business activities of Lake House Printers & Publishers PLC have been affected to an extent by the current pandemic.

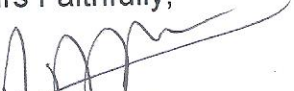

Owing to the prevailing chaotic conditions in the country, the result of the Pandemic and the consequent restrictive measures including total lockdowns of all activities, to mitigate the negative effects of the virus, the operational and other activities of the Company continue to be affected adversely.

Compared with the year 2020, it would indeed be no exaggeration to state that the situation in the country constantly same, even more extreme with lockdowns, curfews, travel restrictions, infected employees, closing of Departments and calling limited staff to work being the order of the day.

Consequently, the impact on the overall performance and, equally importantly, on staff attendance, has been extremely damaging so much so, 'working from home' for the staff the majority of whom lack the technical ability and the skills to do so effectively, has had only limited success.

Under the extended deadline granted by CSE, to submit the audited accounts for the F/Y 2020/21, we believe that work in connection is sufficiently advanced and the Company expects to submit Final Audited Accounts of the Company to the CSE by 30th September 2021

Yours Faithfully,

D.P.A.N. Kumara,
Company secretary.
