Dear Sir,

Response to Inquiry Regarding Unusual Trading Activity in the Securities of Vidullanka PLC (VLL.N0000)

We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated October 16, 2025, concerning the unusual trading activity observed in the securities of Vidullanka PLC (VLL.N0000) on this date.

In response to your query pursuant to the section 8.4 (a) of the CSE listing rules, regarding the existence of any undisclosed price-sensitive information in relation to Vidullanka PLC, we hereby confirm that the Company is not aware of any undisclosed price-sensitive information that warrants dissemination to the market and which may have caused the unusual trading activity.

However, we would like to indicate a certain development during this week, where a consortium including Vidullanka PLC emerged as the lowest price bidder in one out of four tenders participated, of which the technical evaluation is yet to be undertaken. Whilst we would like to indicate that taking part in such tenders is a regular business activity in the power sector, the outcome is not yet certain until the tender is officially awarded at the conclusion of the technical evaluation and an affirmative decision by the relevant awarding body.

Furthermore, we confirm that Vidullanka PLC is undertaking its ordinary course of business activities and that there are no other internal developments or reasons of which the Company is aware that may have caused the unusual trading activity observed by the Colombo Stock Exchange.

We affirm our commitment to comply with the CSE Listing Rules regarding corporate disclosure, which require the immediate disclosure of price sensitive information to ensure the maintenance of a fair and orderly securities market.

Yours sincerely,

On behalf of the Chairman and by Order of the Board,

Lahiri Jayasekera
